You know that when you were pagans, somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols.

1 Corinthians 12:1, 2

"And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars—all the heavenly array—do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshiping things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven."

Deuteronomy 4:19

"Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry."

Colossians 3:5

1. Idols lead us astray by turning our focus inward.

2. Deciding to serve Christ alone unleashes God's power outward to serve others.

"Teacher, . . . We want you to do for us whatever we ask." "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked. They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory."

" . . . You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all.

"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Mark 10:42-45

"Therefore I want you to know that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, 'Jesus be cursed,' and no one can say, 'Jesus is Lord,' except by the Holy Spirit."

1 Corinthians 12:3

An abstract background featuring a white, crumpled paper-like texture. Overlaid on this are several large, flowing, translucent shapes in vibrant colors: yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple, and pink. These shapes appear to be liquid or smoke-like, creating a dynamic and artistic backdrop for the text.

"He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near . . . ¹⁹ Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of his household."

Ephesians 2:17, 19

"I tell you the truth anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father."

John 14:12

"For Christ, perfect God to work directly on a lost soul and bring them out of death and into life is great, but for Him to do the same thing through us is a greater work."
